What is flyball?

Flyball is a fast-paced and exciting sport with teams of four dogs that compete in relay races. Each dog jumps over four hurdles, triggers a spring-loaded box, catches a ball, and returns over the hurdles.

Who is participating in the tournament?

The competition will include a wide variety of breeds and mixes, including a Lhasa Apso (ranked #1 among the breed in North America), a Siberian Husky (ranked #7), an American Pit Bull Terrier (ranked #10), a 100-pound St. Bernard/Lab, and a 14-pound Poodle mix.

Tournament Info

Dates: November 28-29, 2009

Times: Racing will take place at regular intervals from ~10AM to 3PM
(with a lunch break)

Location: Valley Canine Camp & Training Center in Wasilla
(next to Lowe's)

Alaska Dogs Gone Wild was formed in October 2004 and is Alaska's first flyball club.
